Need For Landfill Explained

By BETSY ROSSEN

"We are talking two issues in the discussion of the landfill," said Mayor Robert Wilton. "The first issue is the zoning, or best use, of the property and the second is the operation, including inspection and maintenance."

Prior to any zoning ordinance, the CCD landfill site was in operation. In 1965, upon the adoption of an ordinance, the complete 80 acres was designated for light industry. As a result of a public hearing, airing complaints that the site was too close to residential areas, a 400-foot buffer zone was established. The first 200 feet zoned as two-family (R-4) and the remaining footage, multiple family (R-5).

The landfill operated as a non-conforming use until last fall, when the company applied for proper zoning, heavy industrial (M-2) with special use as a landfill. The village board approved re-zoning at its July 15 meeting, specifying that it revert back to a special use M-1 upon completion of the landfill.

Wilton says, "This is more restrictive on industry, giving a better type and more desirable industry. Without this condition, the site could be used for any type of M-2 when the land is filled in."

A few years ago, the state took authority of operation away from municipalities of non-home rule (towns with populations under 5,000), placing them under the state Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) jurisdiction. CCD has applied for an EPA permit, without which it cannot operate. Wilton stressed that regardless of the zoning, it must comply with all EPA requirements.

THE MAYOR THEN discussed the need for a landfill operation, saying: "The county has no designated site; therefore, we will have to continue with the operation here as long as it meets all qualifications. Until a county program is in operation, there is no other place in the area for the garbage to be dumped." Lake Villa, Lindenhurst, Round

High School Budget Approved

Approval of the 1974-75 budget was the main item of business transacted at last Thursday's Antioch Community High School Board of Education meeting.

Total projected revenue is $2,730,597 with projected expenses totalling $2,557,899.

The expense figure represents a 26 percent increase over last year's total due primarily to salary increases and additional staff. Also, the school's bond and interest payments will be $100,000 more than those of the 1973-74 school year.

Business Manager Ken Wierschem reports that "every fund is in the black, which is quite important." The budget will be on display in his office for the next month.

Staff is complete for the coming school year, with the hiring of Lauri Baker, girls' physical education teacher, and Michael O'Brien, guidance counselor.

The board also approved the hiring of Dr. Donna Ogle to train teachers in reading instruction.

A report was made concerning the July 10 meeting on the McMillen Road assessment, from Rt. 173 to Depot St. The high school's share in converting McMillen to more of an industrial road is $4,500.

Bids for the construction of tennis courts opened Tuesday, with a decision to be made at Thursday night's board meeting. Tentative cost for asphalt-ing, fencing, striping, lining and poles is about $45,000.

Rotary Hears About Tele-Care

Mrs. Barbara Goetzelman, chairman of Tele-Care of Antioch, was a guest speaker last Thursday at the meeting of the Antioch Rotary Club.

The service will begin in Antioch about Aug. 1.

Another speaker at Rotary last Thursday was Ronald Anderson of the Lake County Clergy Service.

Two new members were accepted into the club. They are Mike McDermott and Jerry Pfarr.

JOHN HORTON, husband of the late Jacqueline Horton, well-known Antioch artist, is donating the use of 11 of her paintings to the Lakes Region Historical Society. Receiving two of the paintings, all of which depict scenes of township one-room schoolhouses, is Horton's daughter, June Lutz (left), president of the society, and Betty Lu Williams (right), head librarian and curator of the society.

Remember Darius Gage ? Historical Society Does

By BETSY ROSSEN

Did you know that in 1836 Darius and Thorn Gage were the first settlers in the area of Antioch Township, on land bordering a small creek named Sequoit, an Indian word meaning "winding"?

The story of the Gage brothers is one of many that can be told by the Lakes Region Historical Society, based in Antioch. Begun last fall, its 75 members and 11-member board of directors meet in the public library.

"We have many old photos, books, records and minutes of meetings housed in the library," says President June Lutz. "We even have the original list of voters who chose the name 'Antioch' in 1839."

The society is planning some end-of-the-summer projects, in preparation for the "regular season" of speakers and programs beginning in September. Also in the plans is a bicentennial project to commemorate the nation's 200th birthday in 1976.

Betty Lu Williams, head librarian and Historical Society curator, asks all area residents to bring in any items and artifacts for the collection pertaining to Illinois and the lakes region.

"Though such things as old photos and newspaper clippings seem worthless, they very likely have some historical value," she said.

The society is selling one-year memberships at the following rates: family $5; single, $3 and student, $1.

A colorful July 17 meeting was enjoyed by the lodge's members and guests. The theme was Hawaiian Night.

Guest lodges and our members looked "cool" in their Mu-Mus. Attending were Mrs. Ruby Vern of Waukegan, district vice-president, and Mrs. Clarence Larson, treasurer.

The "Pineapple" was won by our new member, Mrs. Shirley Glenn, for the most colorful dress. Birthday wishes were sung for Mrs. Harold Ellis ... "many more, Mary!"

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Earl Horton is under the weather. Get well soon, Addie, we miss you! Our next regular meeting is August 7.

Action May Save Chain O'Lakes

One of the most encouraging things about this day and age is that a lot of people are all through talking about problems. They're doing something about them.

An example is the flooding and pollution problem in the Chain O'Lakes.

In February spokesmen for the 12-member Chain O' Lakes Study Commission said:

"It behooves us to make a vigorous and demanding ultimatum to the state ... it's time for action."

Now, Gov. Daniel Walker -- possibly this week -- is expected to sign bills that will appropriate $75,000 for an immediate dredging operation and $145,000 for environmental, engineering and other studies."

Members of the 12-person commission, composed of legislators and private citizens, recently met with the Governor and told him, "We're about to lose one of the greatest resources in Illinois ... something has to be done."

The Study Commission's report to the General Assembly last month made important points:

-- The Chain O' Lakes are a major part of the economy of west Lake and eastern McHenry counties, and their value for boating and fishing is rapidly diminishing.

-- The first and major concern is flooding. The entire area was declared a "disaster area" in April 1973 by the federal government.

-- The attitude of the state is a major concern because, since 1964, it has discontinued allowing appropriations for dredging in the Chain. Consequently, there is an ever-increasing buildup of silt which causes the water to be held at a higher level. The high water has caused bogs and sloughs to break up and float out into the lakes, blocking channels, floating into shorelines and destroying piers and frontages.

-- In due procession, this is continuing to affect the quality of the fish. The state has provided no money for cleaning up these bogs, no money for removing floating trees and other obstructions that are endangering the boaters.

-- There no longer is a planned removal of Lake, Ingleside, and Fox Lake are among the communities using the facility.

Wilton said that the Antioch village board definitely is concerned about possible problems that might be created for the township and municipalities. But he believes the floodplain can be controlled.

"The site has to be constructed properly," he asserted, "with no leakage of the outside walls into the surrounding property, particularly Sequoit Creek, which runs along the southern border of the property."

"Many of the residents of Little Silver Lake, who are not in the village, have made many accusations concerning health hazards," Wilton said. He believes that none of the accusations, including noise pollution, leakage into creeks and reports of wild dogs, has been proven.

Responding to concern expressed over infiltration into Sequoit Creek, the mayor said, "Septic tanks infiltrate many times more than any infiltration the village could create."

As a result of re-zoning approval, CCD has made an agreement with the Village deeding 20 acres immediately and 25 acres upon completion of the site (within approximately 10 years). Wilton believes the property has potential as a winter recreational area due to the change in elevation within the acreage.

The planning and zoning committee, composed of the mayor and trustees Ronald Cunningham and Irv Walsh, voted unanimously July 9 to recommend approval of the re-zoning, considering it the best use of the property.

From Our Readers

Dear Editor:

On Wednesday evening, July 31st, at 7:30 p.m., there is going to be an outdoor evening concert in the courtyard at the south end of Antioch High School. The theme for the concert is "Music for a Summer Night." The band will be made up of Jr. High, Sr. High students and a number of local adults.

The reason for this concert is not merely to play for the parents of the students in the band, but to show the community what can be developed with a little effort. Many communities in the area including Kenosha, Round Lake, Racine, Waukegan and Lake Geneva support city bands or orchestras which perform free summer concerts for the citizens of the town. The benefits of this type of organization are many, both to the participants and to the community.

I feel the organization of a town "concert band" would be an interesting and beneficial project for our community. If the people of Antioch would like to see this type of activity developed in town, please show us by your support of this concert. It should prove to be an interesting and relaxing evening.

Thank you,
John Olisar, Band Director

At the Monday night board meeting, Trustee Jim Johnson commended the lifeguard for doing a fine job.

Also at the meeting, the board moved to invite someone from the Lindenhurst Water Company to the next meeting to explain the pumping system. The board was concerned about a recent Sunday's inadequate water pressure, experienced by a large portion of the village for several hours. The board also moved to see if the Lindenhurst Water Company could not establish an emergency number for the village to call on weekends, etc., when the need arises.

TIME IS QUICKLY running out for those residents interested in going on the Citizens Recreation Committee's trip to the Museum of Science and Industry on Tuesday, July 30. Registration for the trip will close this Friday. Permission slips are still available at the village hall. The buses will leave from Trinity Church parking lot at 8:30 a.m. and will start home by 3 p.m., arriving back at the church around 4:30 p.m.

The public-awareness play, "Leave It To Laurie," under the direction of Mr. Charles Brown, will be presented at the Lindenhurst Civic Center, 1949 Old Elm Road, located off Grand Ave. and Lindenhurst Drive.

There will be two performances, one this Saturday at 8 p.m. and the second on Sunday at 2 p.m. Refreshments will be available and admission is 50 cents.

The play is being put on by area youth, is written by Mr. Lee Kalcheim and is brought to you by The American Cancer

The Faces of Evie

The 'Vive Le Difference' Thing

By EVALYN ROZEK

I try, Gloria. I really do. When my husband whines that he can't find his tie tack or his flashlight or his fingernail clippers, do I rush tenderly to his rescue? I do not.

When my children amble into the kitchen and complain to me that they're hungry, do I drop what I'm doing to make them a snack? I do not.

When they throw their dirty clothes on the floor, do I act like a chambermaid in Henry VIII's bedroom? I do not!

As a matter of fact, the cry "GOD DID NOT PUT ME ON THIS EARTH TO WAIT ON YOU GUYS OR TO PICK UP AFTER YOU!" is getting to be a pretty familiar sound around here. For good measure, I usually add, with great fervor, "I AM A HUMAN BEING, NOT A ROBOT! I THINK THOUGHTS, I SING SONGS, I DREAM DREAMS!!!"

In other words, as far as the feminist movement goes, I rate an A-plus, right?

Wrong.

I'm still flunking a couple of subjects.

One of them is called "I Can Do Anything A Man Can and Maybe Even Better."

Some things, yes, Gloria. And some things, no.

For instance:

When my washing machine goes berserk and commences to spew the family's Fruit of the Looms about the basement, it's the man of the house, not me, who takes the darn thing apart and tries to fix it.

When I'm sliding down the highway in the midst of a blizzard and find myself burning rubber in a snow-packed ditch, I'm pretty adept ... at looking helpless.

And, Gloria, when I stood one day this summer on a hot, dusty road, trying in vain to put the chain back on my bicycle, I'm afraid I committed an unforgivable act. I batted my eyes at the men who were passing by in their cars! (Evidently, my eye-batting techniques leave something to be desired—they just kept passing my by!) So then, Ms. Steinham—are you ready for this?—while pretending to be busy fixing the chain, I turned around ON PURPOSE and let them check out my back side!

Just for the record, that tactic failed, too, and I eventually did get the chain back in place under my own power. But that is not the point. The point is, I was trying to use whatever, tee hee, assets I might possess to attract some "big strong man" to come to the rescue of "little ol' me."

Which leads us to another interesting subject.

The "vive le difference" thing.

I'm afraid I rather enjoy it.

I went to a party the other night and wore a brand-new dress.

That felt nice.

When I was introduced to a gentleman and he gave me an admiring glance, that felt even nicer.

And, while we're on the subject—my world of lullabye singing, owie kissing and bedtime story telling—I like that, too. I will even go so far as to admit to feeling a definite sense of pleasure growing (and making, if you must know) my babies.

So, go your militant way, Gloria. And, if any man opens a door for you or has the audacity to flirt with you, smack him square in the mouth, if you wish. But if you ever feel that you've bitten off more than you can chew, why not back-track a little and join me here in the middle of the road?

You're missing all the fun.

Pierce Moderates Energy Conference

State Rep. Daniel M. Pierce (D-Highland Park), Chairman of the Energy Crisis Investigating Committee of the Illinois House of Representatives, moderated a panel on the Energy Crisis sponsored by the Council of State Government last week at Indianapolis. Attending the conference were state officials and legislators from ten midwestern states.

Rep. Pierce, who also serves as Minority Whip in the Illinois House, has been Chairman of the Energy Crisis Investigating Committee since its creation in the Spring of 1973. The Committee was most active in obtaining emergency gasoline and heating oil allocations for the State of Illinois during the period of fuel shortage, which followed the Arab boycott last fall.

The Committee is now working on methods of converting Illinois coal to pipeline quality gas in order to avoid a similar crisis in the future. Rep. Pierce is a strong supporter of "Operation Independence" which is aimed at making the United States independent in the energy field by 1980, so that we will no longer be subject to blackmail from middle eastern oil-producing nations.

70 YEARS AGO JULY 21, 1904

Mr. C.H. Fuller of Burlington has been soliciting subscriptions for the erection of a condensed milk factory at Antioch.

Rumors of the sale of the Wisconsin Central to the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul are now given considerable credence by many railroad officials.

50 YEARS AGO JULY 24, 1924

The new Antioch theatre will open its doors to the public Saturday evening with picturization of Zane Grey's "The Wanderer of the Waste Land."

Louis Derler of Grass Lake bagged a 34 inch-long, 8½ pound pickerel there.

20 YEARS AGO: JULY 22, 1954

The Lions Club is determined there will be no mosquitos on the carnival grounds next week. Permission was obtained from the village board to spray Antioch and places which are breeding places for the mosquitos. The spraying of the mosquito killing fog will be done Monday and the fog will linger only 15 to 20 minutes and is harmless to animals and man. If any person is concerned, he may remain indoors for the 15 minute period.

Navy Shore Patrolman Raymond Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern E. Heath of Channel Lake, was credited by New York newspapers with having made heroic efforts to save a young woman from drowning in that city. Raymond graduated from Antioch High School in 1949 and is well known in this community.

10 YEARS AGO: JULY 23, 1964

After years of serving the Antioch community at 401 Lake St., the A&P will open a new ultra-modern supermarket in the new Hillside Shopping Center at Orchard and Hillside.

The Village Board gave approval to the full improvement of Spafford St., from Lake to Harden St. The work will include curbs and gutters, sewer, new base and new blacktop surfacing.

GEORGE OLISAR

'An Interesting And Relaxing Evening'

George Olisar, prominent trumpet player in the Chicago-land area, will be the featured trumpet soloist at "Music for a Summer Night," on Wednesday, July 31.

He will perform "Soliloquy for Trumpet" by John Morrissey with the Antioch High School Symphonic Band at its outdoor concert that evening.

Mr. Olisar has performed with many of the outstanding musical organizations in the area, including the Chicago Symphony, Lyric Opera and the WGN Radio and Television Orchestra.

He also was solo trumpet with the United States Military Academy Band, and former director of the Johnson Wax Company Band and the Antioch Grade School Band.

Mr. Olisar currently is director of instrumental music at Zion Junior High School.

PM&L's Variety Show Now in Rehearsal

Rehearsals and other plans are going forward for "Ice Cream 'n' Apple Pie," the variety show which PM&L will present on Friday and Saturday, Aug. 9 and 10. This effort is a benefit, designed to raise funds for the refurbishing and remodeling of the PM&L Theater. Prominent in this project is the acquisition of a new curtain for that theater.

Since the PM&L Theater will be closed for the rest of the summer for that remodeling, "Ice Cream 'n' Apple Pie" will be presented in the auditorium of the Antioch Community High School, 1033 S. Main St. You can call 395-9702 for your reservations. Curtain time for both performances is 8:30 p.m.

The variety show will be staged by a seasoned PM&L cast and crew. Don Beveroth is the director, Lynn Zaehler choreographer, Rita Shields director of music, and pianist Tracy Teltz heads the musicians for the ambitious production.

It will contain a wide range of musical numbers and skits. Based on contemporary life, most of these will center on "American as apple pie" themes. These will be presented in comedy skits and political satire, together with dancing, folk music, and other musical number.

You can join not only the fun but also the cause of rejuvenating the PM&L Theater by supporting and seeing "Ice Cream 'n' Apple Pie." Remember that this show will be in the high school rather than in the PM&L Theater, the customary home of PM&L productions.

International Youth Meeting

Several hundred young people from Illinois are leaving to attend an International Youth Meeting in Boston next week.

According to Mrs. Reed F. Kaiser, Assistant Committee on Publication for Antioch, Mr. Bill Beese, Miss Anne Conzelmann, and Mrs. Jill Fleider Swarz will join more than 7,000 young Christian Scientists from many lands at The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Theme of the three-day meeting (July 29-31) is "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?"

Through music, film, talks, and discussion, those attending will consider the deeper dimensions of individual purpose and commitment to Christian healing.

Most of the young people will be seeing the recently completed Christian Science Center for the first time.

All of them are members of The Mother Church, and many are active in one of the 135 branch churches in Illinois or one of the 28 Christian Science college organizations in the state.

Countries to be represented at the International Youth Meeting include Australia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, France, India, Nigeria, Switzerland, and the West Indies, as well as the United States.

McClory Sponsors Writing Contest

Washington, D.C. - Congressman Robert McClory (R-Ill.) announced today that he will sponsor a writing competition for students who visit the Lake, Kane, and McHenry County Fairs this summer on "The One Thing I Like Best About American Life."

Youngsters who come by the McClory booth at the Fairs will be able to compose a short paragraph on that aspect of life in this country which they find most worthwhile, and be eligible for the Congressman's award. The winner of the short essay contest in each county will have his or her work printed in the Congressional Record - the official publication of the United States Congress - in addition to receiving a $25 United States Savings Bond from Congressman McClory.

All entries in this writing competition will be accepted at the three county fairs, and will then be judged in Mid-August by a three-person panel selected by Congressman McClory - Mrs. Shirley Rauschenberger of Elgin, who was honored as one of Illinois's six outstanding parents by the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction; Admiral Warren H. O'Neill, Commandant of the Great Lakes Naval Training Center; and Mr. John Strohm of Woodstock, who is editor of Wildlife Magazine.

"In a time when so much of the news disappoints and depresses the human spirit, I believe that this contest can be an uplifting experience for youngsters of all ages as we share our thoughts on the many good things about American life," Mr. McClory stated. "A few moments of reflection on all the enjoyable aspects of life in this country can rekindle the American can-do spirit that has played such a major part in our society's success."

Your Police and the Community

By SUE SEDIVEC
Community Relations Officer

On April 2, 1973, Officer Stanley Revell became a law enforcement officer with the Antioch Police Department. He no longer can be called "The Rookie" since he already has gained more than a year's experience as a policeman.

Officer Revell says he became interested in police work by talking with friends who were in the law enforcement profession.

"I appreciated their desire to help the citizen and their sense of accomplishment in solving problems that protected the community," he said.

Stan feels that Antioch is a growing community with an outstanding future. As a police officer he believes in helping people and especially encourages more activities for youth.

"I feel there is a need for a place where the young people can meet and do their thing," he said. "I can't believe that kids enjoy walking around town and just hanging around parking lots."

Officer Revell is also active off-duty, participating in ice hockey, running, swimming, wrestling and boxing.

It is easy to sense Stan's sincerity and enthusiasm in aiding the citizens of Antioch. He expresses a genuine concern to enforce law and order to protect the members of his community.

Mysterious Parking Meters Case

Philip Moffet has a real mystery on his hands, or, more correctly, in his backyard. Last Thursday evening he found a broken parking meter behind his home at 282 Lakewood Drive.

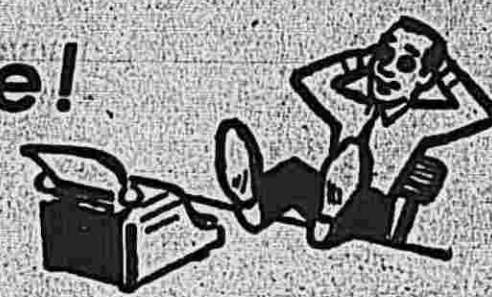

An Antioch police officer was dispatched to the scene, and shown a twin silver meter found under the bushes. The device was badly smashed, with both tops broken off and both time mechanisms missing. The only visible identification remaining was the casting number on the base of the meter.

Moffet discovered the meter at 5:15 p.m., but has no idea when it was left there. Puzzling also is the fact that he found another meter behind his home on June 15, without a clue as to why.

Wristwatch For Sale!

By JERRY PFARR

When I was sixteen going on seventeen I read a poem and it has haunted me ever since.

"Tick, tick, man - be quick!

"There you lost a splendid minute,

"What a superb chance was it!"

As I sashay willy-nilly through life, wasting precious minutes, hours, days, months, years ... I think of that poem and feel guilty. Maybe intimidated is a better word.

This worst of all possible worlds seems to demand that, since we're here only a short time, we must hurry up and accomplish something. Society doesn't seem to care that rushing only makes life shorter.

We live by the clock and we die by the clock. It has always been a source of irritation to me - racing against a pair of little hands that sweep around a dial. Who told them they could run my life? To me, a taste of heaven would be to live in a world free of clocks ... unfettered by time .. you know, sort of like a bum.

Recently I was leaving for a short weekend trip to visit friends, and - as usual - began attaching my wristwatch. Then I had a brainstorm!

"Wait. You hate this intimidating little rascal. Let's leave him home, just this once. For one weekend, let's live without him. March to our own drummer!"

I've worn a wristwatch every single day since I was a boy. A slave to it. How many times have I cut myself shaving, or had my breakfast ruined, because it whispered I was late for work?

How often has it rendered me fuming and furious in traffic jams? And ordered me home early from enjoyable parties, just because I was scheduled to be jarred a few hours later by its cousin with the clanging alarm.

I used to feel rushed when traveling on a highway, my eyes bouncing between the speedometer and my wristwatch as if they were in a table tennis match. But this time I really don't know how long the trip took.

By force of habit I glanced often at my wrist, but how refreshing! No clock. And outside the windows of the car, no kidding, scenery. And no more need to check the rearview mirror for cars with bubble-gum machines on top.

My dream of being able to eat when hungry, sleep when tired, work when energetic and loaf when lazy makes more sense, I'm sure, than doing these things because a clock says it's time to.

If you stop and think about it, clock-making is one of those multi-million dollar businesses. Subtle brainwashing by the manufacturers probably is going on constantly to keep us buying their products and enslaved to the system. I'm sure it goes back to old sayings like, "the early bird gets the worm." (But you can't be the early bird unless you know what time it is.)

Our language is sprinkled with reminders:

"I'll be with you in a second."

"It only takes a minute."

"Twenty-four little hours."

"What a difference a day makes!"

They're all slogans implanted by the clock manufacturers. I'll bet they all get together and advertise in Time magazine!

It really ticks me off. (See, now they've got me doing it!) I'd better watch out.

Paper Drive Funds Provide Many Benefits

For two years now, Antioch has seen paper drives on a semi-regular basis originating at the Antioch Upper Grade School. In October of 1972, the seventh grade science classes of Mr. Paul Epner started having paper drives as an outgrowth of a pollution unit in class. With the money that was earned about $60 worth of pollution books were purchased for the school library and about $35 went to purchase trees for the grounds. Many also went to a class swim-pizza party at the end of the year. This past school year Mr. Epner sponsored a pollution club called L.A.W. (Land, Air and Water). This club continued paper drives on a regular basis (the third Sunday of the month) for the purpose of fighting pollution.

With the funds derived from these drives, the school was authorized to spend $50 on a purple martin house and $500 was given to buy a videotape machine for the upper grade school.

In the two years over 100,000 pounds of papers have been recycled. While school is out, the paper drives are being administered by Teen Canteen Management as stated in the June 12 issue of The Antioch News. Teen Canteen is a recreation program for junior high aged students and is run by Teen Canteen Management (TCM) under the sponsorship of the Apache Parent-Teacher Organization. In September the paper drives will revert back to the pollution club.

THE FAMILY PORTRAIT

Since many children go away to school and the family may not be together again until the year-end holidays, this is an ideal time to plan family activities as a group - a time to get back-to-school wardrobes together and to have a contemporary, natural portrait taken of the family by a professional photographer. A color photographic portrait has marvelous gift-giving and home-decorating possibilities.

A family portrait takes only an afternoon. The best way to go about it is to call B-J Rush Studio at 395-5554, decide on an afternoon and make plans together.

You will want to decide whether the portrait should be indoors or out. Many suburban families prefer to have an environmental portrait photograph done on their property or in an attractive near-by location. For instance, your family can be photographed as a group on the tennis court, ice-skating in an indoor rink or at a local park. Any of these create an appealing setting for an action portrait.

B-J Rush Studios can advise you about appropriate framing. A portrait photograph of your family can be used also as a warm personal Christmas card, or for birthday or anniversary gifts for family members.

For a special surprise when the portrait prints are ordered, give Dad a large family portrait for his office with a tailored leather or suede frame - or save it and let Santa put it under the tree.

before they grow up and grow away from the family group...

Antioch Swimmers Suffer Loss to Lake Forest

This week was a rough one for the Antioch Swim Team sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch. After taking a loss to the Lake Forest Club on Tuesday evening they traveled to Lincolnshire on Saturday for the North Suburban Conference Relays Championships and placed fourth.

In the Lake Forest meet the team took their worst defeat of the season by a 144 to 230 score.

Dave Berry continued on his winning ways, taking three first places. Young John Fink took first in both freestyle and back. Eva Auxier, showing lots of strength, took firsts in both freestyle and the gruelling 50 yard butterfly which, at the Antioch Aqua center is really 66 2-3 yards! Denise Holt, Judy Houghton, George Bessette, Trina Spietz, Sue Berry, John Bellucci, Jean Cilik, Margaret Bessette and Mike Jaworek were also first place winners.

Margaret Bessette, Trina Spietz, Michelle Blanchette and Carol Berry were first place winners in their relay.

Mike Jaworek, his brother Al, Frank Bessette and Dave Berry took first place in the 15-16 boys backstroke relay. Jenny Schmidt, Debbie Rentner, Michelle Blanchette and Margaret Bessette won the 13-14 200 yd. girls breaststroke relay and Mike and Al Jaworek, Frank Bessette and Jeff Schmidt took first in the 15-16 boys breaststroke relay.

Climaxing the relays meet was the 100 yard butterfly. Putting on a beautiful and speedy race in that event were Bob Dodd, Jerry Schmidt, Eva Auxier, and Dave Berry. They took a first place to end the meet on a happy note.

Stock Cars Play 'Football' With Oil Drum

WAUKEGAN - Stock car football returns to the Waukegan Speedway for the third season this Sunday night. A full program of stock car racing is also on the card at no increase in admission costs.

The automotive brand of football matches two teams of drivers and cars against each other with the object of bouncing, rolling and ramming a "football" the length of the infield for a score.

The "football" is either a Volkswagen of a 250-gallon oil drum. Organizer Gordon Sill says, "We'll probably use the oil drum mostly. Our experience last season with Volkswagens showed one or two solid hits and the VW comes apart." Sill expects a high scoring this season.

Late model super stock car racing will also be on the card with top drivers competing for championship points in the "Chicagoland Driving Championship" (CDC). Chicago's Bob Roper leads that division and Dave Evans is the point leader among the Sunday night late model drivers at Waukegan.

The track is on Washington St., just west of Waukegan. Qualifications start at 7:15 and the first race at 8 p.m.

Stern Wins More Trapshoot Honors

Harry Stern is still swinging a hot gun and adding to his trophy collection.

After shooting a score of 92 at the Farm Bureau trap shoot in Springfield, Saturday, he came back on Sunday with a sizzling 99 to win top honors in his class at the St. Charles Sportsmen's Club trapshoot in Elburn.

Stern was in a three-way tie for high gun, but did not enter in the shoot-off, settling for the class crown. He also topped the veterans class.

CHRISTIAN
CHURCH

In the Bible in Psalms 33 we read "For the word of the Lord is right; and all his works are done in truth." This is brought out Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, in a Bible Lesson-Sermon entitled "TRUTH."

Commentary from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy includes this explanation: "Mortals try to believe without understanding Truth; yet God IS Truth."

Services begin at 11 a.m. at First Church of Christ, Scientist, BEACON HILL, Rte. 173 and Harden, Antioch, Illinois, and the public is always invited.

No fuel shortage there—a church in England has a floor made out of coal!

ABC'S OF Travel Travel -- Domestic and International

Swiss Holiday travel passes mean greater savings for all ages. This is a pass which permits unlimited travel on the entire network of Swiss Federal Railways, most private and mountain railroads, postal buses and lake steamers. It is more popular today than ever before.

All of Switzerland - cities, resorts and remote regions are linked together with frequent and reliable transportation service. The Swiss Holiday Pass, which must be bought in the United States, costs $43 for eight days of first-class travel ($30 for 2nd class); $60 for 15 days ($43 for 2nd class); and $85 for one month ($60 for 2nd class).

Senior citizens (over 65 for men, 62 for women) can purchase a special pass for $23.40 which entitles the holder to purchase locally an unlimited number of transportation tickets at half-rate in either first or second class on all regularly scheduled railways, mountain railroads, lake steamers and postal motor coaches.

This pass is good for one year and can be used to obtain reduced hotel rates during off-season. Other tourists can buy the regular Half-Fare Pass, valid for one-month at $18.40. For those of you who have friends and family in Switzerland and really want to see the countryside, here is your chance.

For more information, contact your local travel agent or Swiss National Tourist Office, and they can give you more details.

IN RECENT YEARS, SOME SOCIOLOGISTS HAVE SAID THAT THE INSTITUTION OF MARRIAGE IS ON ITS WAY OUT. BUT YOUNG COUPLES ARE STILL GETTING MARRIED AND PROVING THAT TWO CAN LIVE AS CHEAPLY AS ONE!

ONE WAY MANY OF THEM ARE DOING THIS IS BY JOINING THE ARMY. THE ENLISTMENT OF HUSBAND AND WIFE TEAMS IS A PHENOMENON OF TODAY'S ARMY. SO FAR, MORE THAN 50 COUPLES HAVE TAKEN THEIR MARRIAGE AND ENLISTMENT VOWS!

Early gliders had to be towed by early cars to get off the ground. They were really up in the air.
